UNTO US

Such simple words: unto us. In Hebrew, it's an even simpler phrase, just one word, and it looks like this: לָנוּ which is pronounced "lay-nu." It means 'unto us,' and we find it in the Old Testament book written by the prophet, Isaiah.

Unto us a child is born.

Unto us a son is given.

And his name shall be called

Wonderful Counselor,

Almighty God, Everlasting

Father, Prince of Peace.

- Isaiah 9:6

These words are 2,500 years old, and probably like all the people before me, I have to stop and pinch myself to catch its meaning. Unto us, unto me - a child is born. Christ came into the world for me. When Christ arrived in the manger surrounded by shepherds and wise men, in the mysterious ways of faith, I was there, too, in Bethlehem. Unto me, unto you a child is born. It's funny that the words are in this order (as they are in Hebrew). It's as if the writer needed to emphasize that it's unto you! It's unto us! It's almost like the writer is responding to someone who said, "A child is born. A son is given." Then the writer shouts, "No!!!! A child isn't simply born. Unto us, a child is born! Unto us, a son is given!!!!"

In the recent stand-up comedy special, Seth Meyers tells about his wife giving birth in the lobby of their apartment building.

Later at the hospital, he had to fill out some paperwork. Mother's name? He wrote the name of his wife. Mother's phone number? He wrote down her phone number. Then it said, Father's name. And he wrote down the name of his father-in-law. Then it said, Father's phone number. Seth shouted, "How do I know my father-in-law's phone number?!!!" One of the EMTs said, "I think that means you. You're the father."

This Advent and Christmas, let's remember that Christ was born of Mary, yes. And whosoever believes in him should not perish but have everlasting life. And Christ was the word made flesh who dwelt among us in truth and grace.

But sometimes, with all of the big words and grand concerts of Christmas music, we can forget the simple, absurd truth of Christmas. We're the shepherds abiding in the fields, and angels are all around us singing:

Unto you, a child is born.
