NEWS AT FIRST

A Good Contagion

Thanksgiving is key in Christian prayer, but often our requests outweigh our thanks. By contrast, 85% of prayers in the Jewish prayerbook are blessings of thanks, according to Rabbi Evan Moffic. Noting that the Hebrew word for a Jewish person — Yehudah — means “one who is grateful,” he states, “Gratitude is at the core of how Jews pray.”

Someone once asked Moffic if he might know about a blessing he’d overheard at a restaurant. After a man proposed to his girlfriend and she said yes, he walked quietly to a corner, put on a yarmulke (a sacred Jewish head covering worn in prayer) and spoke a blessing. His fiancé teared up. The rabbi said the prayer was surely this:

“Blessed are you, O God, sovereign of the universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us and for enabling us to reach this joy-filled moment.”

Why was this person so interested? “I am planning to propose to my girlfriend,” he shared with Moffic, “and I want to say this prayer with her.”

Unbeknown to the newly engaged pair, their gratitude transformed another couple’s life. When we give thanks to God, not only is our faith strengthened but our thanksgiving may inspire others. Gratitude is contagious!

“Amazing Grace”

Once in a while a tune sticks or keeps being repeat over and over in my mind. I wonder if that ever happens to you? That phenomenon happened with me a few days ago. Someone spoke of their favorite hymn “Amazing Grace.” I unconsciously kept repeating the lyrics, so finally, I decided to look up the origin of the hymn. What I found was a powerful story behind the tune. John Newton wrote the hymn for the people of Olney, Buckinghamshire, England, where he was pastor. John Newton lived from 1725 – 1807 and was born in London. There was tragedy in John’s life with the death of his mother when he was seven years of age. At eleven John went to sea with his father, and by seventeen he served in the British Royal Navy assigned to a man-of-war. After serving as a sailor on a slave ship, he became a captain transporting Africans to be sold as slaves to the North American colonies. During a storm at sea in 1748, John had a spiritual awakening. At forty, John became ordained in the Church of England and became pastor of St. Mary Woolnoth Church, London, for the remainder of his life.

As with a lot of things in life, once I know the story or as Paul Harvey used to say, “the rest of the story.” As we approach the end of 2022 with Thanksgiving followed by Christmas, why not look at our relationships with friends, family, and God. I ask myself, and maybe you can ask yourself as well, “What hymn might each of us write depicting our lives, or what hymn might each of us pick which depicts our lives?” One of the most encouraging parts of life is being amazed at the all-inclusive, encompassing breath of God that touches and changes lives.

Thankful for the Saints

*In our day of Thanksgiving one psalm let us offer for the saints who before us have found their reward.
When the shadow of death fell upon them, we sorrowed,
but now we rejoice that they rest in the Lord. ...*

*These stones that have echoed their praises are holy,
and dear is the ground where their feet have once trod.
Yet here they confessed they were strangers and pilgrims,
and still they were seeking the city of God.*

—William H. Draper (1916)

Monticello Community Thanksgiving Dinner ‘DELIVERY, Take-Out ONLY’

Dear friends and neighbors,

It's that time of year again. Cool weather, harvesting fields, football, bonfires and pumpkin spice everywhere. Halloween will be here before we know it and then my favorite holiday, Thanksgiving. Just a meal shared with family and friends, being thankful for the many blessings that we have received.

The past two years, where we provided meals only by delivery, taught us many things:

1. We provided more meals than when we offered delivery and dine-in.
2. We were able to better estimate our food needs and cost, thereby reducing the amount of waste and giving more money to the food pantry.
3. We could do it all with fewer volunteers and their time commitment we less.

For these reasons, we have decided that we will be doing delivery and take-out only again this year.

If you would like to have a meal delivered OR if you would like to drive up to get your meal, please call us at 319-465-3219, leave your name and number and we will call you back.

If you would like to volunteer your time to deliver meals or help in other ways please call us at 319-465-3219, leave your name and number and we will call you back.

If you would like to make a donation, you can drop it off at Citizen State Bank or send it to: Monticello Community Dinner, c/o Terry Fueling, 15736 120th Ave, Scotch Grove, IA 52310.

Thank you again for supporting this event and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,
Bruce & Terry Feuling and
Dennis & Jeannie McCall

The PNC Committee has had the opportunity to do Zoom interviews with two pastor candidates. We have had conversations about their church experiences, and our congregation's future direction. We are following up with them through the Presbytery guidelines.

Happiness is like manna; it is to be gathered in grains and enjoyed every day. It will not keep; it cannot be accumulated; nor have we got to go out of ourselves or into remote places to gather it, since it is rained down from heaven, at our very doors.

—Tryon Edwards
